

VOLUNTEER URGENTLY REQUIRED

Community Speedwatch Coordinator

Are you concerned enough about the speed of traffic through the village to help do something about it? Can you spare two to three hours a week working from home, using your computer and/or telephone?

If so, please consider taking on this important role for Waldringfield and the adjacent villages of Newbourne, Kirton and Falkenham CSW requires someone to coordinate the collection and movement of the two speed cameras from one location to another every week or so, as well ensuring that there are sufficient volunteers on site available to use them.

It will also entail the collection of the data recorded by the Speedwatch teams to be forwarded to Suffolk Police. The ability to create and use a spreadsheet is desirable, but is not essential.

To volunteer or to obtain more information, please contact Suffolk Police's Speedwatch Coordinator in our area, Sgt Peter Street.

SILVER SUNDAY

CELEBRATING OLDER PEOPLE

Silver Sunday is an annual day of fun and free activities for older people across the UK.

Led by The Sir Simon Milton Foundation, it celebrates the value and knowledge they contribute to our communities while combating loneliness and isolation.

Everyone can get involved, whether that's organising an event, spreading the word, or simply attending an activity".

This year "Silver Sunday" is on Sunday 7th October and details about the day, organising events and advertising them via a map, posters etc. is available at:

The Annual Harvest Supper

in the Village Hall will be on Saturday 20th October

when there will be performance of a new pantomime written by Gareth Thomas entitled

Howl and the Puddy-tat

Tickets from Marian Bradley or The Post Office Van.

Many of you will be aware that November 11th 2018 marks the centenary of the armistice of the First World War. There are many events planned to commemorate this, to recognise those who gave their lives then and who have given their lives in war since.

To this end, the Coffee Morning Team is planning a "special" coffee morning in November.

Please note in your diaries that the coffee morning will be held in Waldringfield Village Hall from 10am-12noon on the second Thursday of the month (8th November), instead of the first (this is the nearest Thursday to Armistice Day).

We are hoping to give each visitor a keepsake poppy, and there will be a raffle, with poppy-themed (and other) prizes.

If you would like to bake a cake or donate a prize for the raffle. this will be much appreciated. All proceeds from the raffle will be donated to the Royal British Legion.

We look forward to seeing you on the day.

Kind regards,

Chris Lyon (The Coffee Morning Team)

Farmers' Market comes to Trinity Park

The Suffolk Agricultural Association, Suffolk Market Events and the East of England Co-op have joined forces to bring Suffolk Farmers' Market to Trinity Park on Saturday 13th October, 10am-4pm.

Entry is free to the first ever Suffolk Farmers' Market which will be a top-quality food and artisan market bringing together a fantastic range of farmers, local producers and crafters all under one delicious roof. The extensive list of local producers includes Hillfarm Oils, Stokes Sauces, the New England Boar Company and many more. There will be plenty of new foods to try and something to suit everyone with a wide range of cuisines and sweet treats alongside healthier options.

The event is being held to highlight the importance of buying produce from local farmers and businesses. The benefits of buying locally are wide-ranging from enjoying fresher, tastier food to supporting the local economy and allowing visitors to understand where their food comes from.

At Suffolk Farmers' Market, visitors will be able to talk to the person who planted the carrots, milked the cows and collected the eggs so they can understand the journey their produce went through to get from the field to their fork.

Hedgehogs out and about!

Several hedgehogs have been seen around the village, seemingly more than last year – which is encouraging as a nationwide decline has been well known about for some years. They have so far been seen in Mill Road, Deben Lane and Church Meadows that we know of, including a family with hoglets. In other years they have also been seen visiting gardens on Cliff Road and Village Way. With the dry weather, there must be a dearth of slugs and snails and earthworms will have gone deeper down, so the hedgehogs need all the help they can get.

Remember they need plenty of linked up spaces such as several gardens per hog, so making sure they have access - five inch diameter holes or just a way through a hedge without a fence or netting forming a barrier - is important.

If you put out food you are more likely to get a hedgehog visiting, and also water of course. Hedgehog Street advises putting out a shallow dish of water every night and suggest some cat or dog food - wet - or cat biscuits. They should not get bread and milk - they are lactose intolerant. You could put it under a shelter with a five inch access hole to discourage other visitors from eating it. The gardens visited have been putting out food and water. You can also encourage their natural food supply by allowing the bottoms of hedges to grow the grasses and wild flowers (weeds!) that will make good foraging areas.

Hedgehogs spotted can be recorded on the Hedgehog Street site and also on the Suffolk Wildlife Trust one. These sites have lots of information:

Waldringfield Wildlife Group would also like to know about the local ones. So if you see any, let us know! Our recorder for the wildlife group is Pam Crawley on 736636. Peter Maddison also logs sightings for 'What's About'

SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NEWSLETTER

AUGUST 2018

The past three months have seen significant changes at Suffolk County Council. A new leader has been elected, Matthew Hicks, and his promise to listen and inform councillors, on a regular basis, has been adhered to. This has created a noticeable difference in attitude and atmosphere.

He is particularly keen to work in partnership, not only with other councils, health, police, and other agencies but with business also. It is essential for all agencies to work together. Having one communication focus will reassure people that overlapping issues will be addressed.

A major review of Highways is underway and to progress this a new councillor has been appointed, Cllr Mary Evans. Cllr Evans wishes to make sure the highways limited budget is used to best effect in areas such as: communication with businesses and residents regarding repairs; best use of local knowledge; deployment of resources to best advantage; that utility companies co-ordinate roadworks and are accountable for actions.

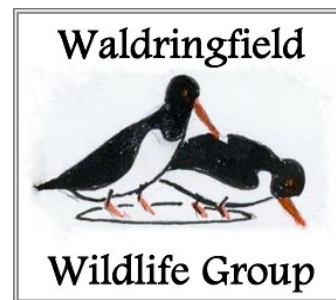

Suffolk Highways has been repairing potholes and surface dressing roads. It pledged to surface dress 1,000 miles of road by 2021.

My main involvement at SCC is as chairman of the Police & Crime Panel. I chair meetings that hold the Police Commissioner, Tim Passmore, to account. At present, there is particular focus on violent crime and drug related crime.

I visited the mobile police unit that was set up in Ipswich, in the Norwich Rd area, after the stabbings. The unit was there to reassure the public and gain information. I spoke to the superintendent on duty and learnt much, mostly just how difficult it is to engage with the public. This is because the community is scared to come forward and give any information.

The potential sale of Police HQ at Martlesham is being considered. If it goes ahead it would mean 250 homes on the site.

Looking for an alternative to care homes? Then consider Live in Care.

At IP Homecare, we believe home is a place, filled with memories and photos, where your routines and food are cooked just the way you like.

Live in Care compares well to the price of a care home but you do not have to sell your belongings and share a Carer with up to 20 others at night. You do not have to eat from a limited menu or wait until a disruptive resident calms down. Instead of becoming institutionalised our Live in Carers will interact with you or a loved one during the day and ensure all is well at night.

To find out more, please call your local care team on 0808 274 2190 or visit:
www.iphomecare.co.uk

A big thank you to all our marvellous helpers & Judges at our Produce show on Sat 11th August and all those who came and supported us - we hope you enjoyed your visit. It was a great turnout of 'vegetables' this year, after the spring downpours then the drought we were not expecting many entries, so very well done all you growers. It was lovely to see some new people enter this year.

If you would like to see any other classes in the schedule next year please let me know.

The winner with most points, over all the categories was Betsy Reid, closely followed by myself & in 3rd place Ian Kay (last years winner).

The 'Peoples Choice' chosen by you the public, & the 'Best Domestic Produce' was Pat Frost's super hand-made Raised Pork Pie.

The 'Best Vegetable' was Ian's Beetroot.

The 'Best Fruit' was Betsy's Plate of 5 different fruits.

The 'Best Preserve' was Ian's Marmalade

The 'Best Flower' was Chris Lyon's Agapanthus.

The 'Best Craft' was Lynn Dyson-Bruce's Crochet Shawl.

The 'Best Photo' was Christine Fisher Kay's Activity on the river.

Waldringfield Gardeners.

Over six weeks, Greener Waldringfield looked at how we could kick start action on climate breakdown.

We covered five topics: economics, water, food, waste and transport. Our aim was to find one easy action we could take (install a water butt, limit car use, only buy refills to avoid plastic) and to identify long term solutions (campaign for a universal basic income, explore the possibility of a village bus, see if we can arrange for supermarket delivery vans to deliver to the village on a single day).

We went away with lots of ideas. You can find out what we talked about at <http://www.greenerwaldringfield.org/six-weeks/4594374779>

One of our first projects will be to compile a comprehensive village directory, listing all our local groups, clubs and businesses. Thank you to those who've been in touch so far. We welcome contributions: a couple of lines about what you offer; photos or art work; brief thoughts on what makes Waldringfield special

Email info@greenerwaldringfield.org or drop off your ideas at The Cottage, Fishpond Road.

Members also enjoyed a Safari Supper, along Fishpond road, Cliff Road and Sullivan Place, following Waldringfield Gardeners' very popular and successful Produce Show. We tried to use as many local ingredients as we could. A good time was had by all.

For details of our next meeting, or to follow what we're up to, find us on Facebook "Greener Waldringfield" and Twitter @GreenerWald

Thanks and best wishes,
Libby

Waldringfield Church Field moving the goal post

A useful work party took place on Tuesday 14th August when the entrances from Mill Road were made more accessible and visible, cutting back the gorse, bramble and bracken to allow easier entry, and the hedge by the footpath. A magnificent kestrel seemed not to be deterred from hunting by all this activity. The goal post was moved to a different location to spread the wear and tear on the field and allow the worn area to recover.

Church Field like everywhere else has been very dry and brown through the hot weather and although the trees have borne up well, a few hints of autumn colour have appeared already.

There appears to be plenty of rabbit and badger activity going on in the digging of small scrapes. There also seem to be a lot of grasshoppers this year.

A flock of at least thirty sparrows are to be seen in the gorse and hedges. Butterflies spotted recently although in small numbers were the Ringlet, Gatekeeper, Meadow Brown, Grayling, Red Admiral, Peacock, Brown Argus, Common Blue, Large White and Green -veined White. The buddleia always attracts some bees and butterflies although we seem to have observed fewer butterflies this year overall. People also feel there have been less skylarks around the field – in previous years skylarks have been evident here all through the summer singing over head, sometimes several at once .

Dog owners are reminded to keep their dogs on leads and under control to avoid disturbance to wild life and other users of the field, and to please clean up after their pets – there are three bins available for bagged waste.

In September we hope to carry out a survey of plants present by doing a transect – if you are interested in joining in with this please get in touch.

Also anyone interested in joining in with work parties is welcome to get in touch to add their name to the list of people we contact when planning one. Mostly work parties are in the winter. The AGM will be at the end of November as usual. Many thanks to all those continue to help with maintenance and other tasks through the year.
