THE WINTER TALK SERIES

The History Group will present: Waldringfield at Leisure, 6th April, 7:30pm

Do you have any stories and photographs about social and sporting activities in the village?

May we use them in the presentation? How far back are we looking?

...Well, not that far. ... Maybe going backwards from the 1970's. ... We can usually restore old photos.

Contact Joe Clark 736670 or Stan Baston 736509

The cost is £3 and you get a cuppa and biscuit at half time. Talks start at 7:30pm.

EASTERN ANGLES TOURING PRODUCTION Tues 26th April, 7:30pm

In a small town on Suffolk's eroding coastline, life goes on pretty much as usual until Carrie arrives investigating a 30-year-old lifeboat tragedy. As lost lives and loves are dredged to the surface the past becomes clearer and locals learn to face up to the future.

Andrew Holland has written plays for radio and stage. "Waiting to Fly" was broadcast on Radio 4 and "Ever Your Loving Son" was based on the letters of two of the Fison family, written from the Western Front to their mother who lived in a small Suffolk village.

Tickets from Colin and Betsy Reid, Dormers, Cliff Rd., Waldringfield.

For over 50 years Carl Giles was one of the UK's best loved cartoonists, yet he chose to spend most of his time in Suffolk. Waldringfield had a place in Giles' heart – he kept a boat moored here and one of his original cartoons hangs in the Maybush. What of the man behind the drawings? He rarely gave interviews – yet his life was as rich and colourful as one of the front covers of his annuals. Let's glimpse between the pages to see the loves and hates, passion and pain of the man who, with the creation of Grandma and her brood, became one of the most famous cartoonists of the 20th century. Funded by Suffolk Foundation, Arts Council, SCDC, IBC, Daily Express.
