WINTER TALKS

The Heritage Maritime Trail

Thursday November 1st at 7.30 pm

It is eight miles as the crow flies to historic Harwich from Waldringfield., a little more by boat. It is 24 miles by road. Whichever way you get there it is possible to then take 'The Heritage Maritime Trail' which David Whittle will describe in his talk.

Most Secret

Thursday December 6th at 7.30 pm

Respected National Trust author and volunteer warden on Orford Ness, Paddy Heazell, will return to expose yet more secrets about the role of the military research station in the great conflicts of the 20th century. He spoke to us five years ago but, since then, there has been a lot of water over the spit and many secrets revealed.

Admission £3. Upcoming talks: Jan 3rd - Writer and Producer Jonathan Ruffle on WW1

Feb 7th - Mayor of the Paralympic Village Eva Loeffler, subject tbc; March 7th - subject and speaker tbc

Waldringfield Wildlife Group
