EASTERN ANGLES FRIDAY 20th MAY at 7.30pm

Eastern Angles, our regional touring theatre, are back with a new play, Booming Voices, which aims to capture the magic of the Broads and to explore their possible future. Author Ivan Cutting says: It is a follow up to our production of The Tide Jetty which was so popular three years ago. This time the setting is one of the most beautiful and vulnerable spots in East Anglia, centring on the story of the fictional Jen, a young student who is shielding in an isolated cottage on the edge of a watery haven and housesitting for a Professor in the US who is investigating the impact of climate change. Together they explore the iconic wildlife and nature of the Broads, showing us just how vulnerable is this seemingly timeless landscape.

With the songs of acclaimed folk musician Jimmy Aldridge, and insights from figures who helped discover the true nature of this wetland paradise (comparable to Ibiza, sang David Bowie), Booming Voices promises to be an evening that both prepares us for the future and gives us hope. (The play is thought suitable for 14 plus.)

Unfortunately the badminton/social group has stopped meeting on Thursday evenings and the Bridge Group on Wednesdays

That means that we have Monday and Thursday evenings free if you fancy starting a new activity in the Deben Hall. The Kennedy Room is free every other Monday, and every Wednesday and Thursday evening.

Our legendary coffee mornings continue on the first Thursday of the month. The lottery draw also takes place then. A good time guaranteed for all, there is a book exchange and greetings cards for sale, Greener Waldringfield has a stand, and sometimes other stalls are there as well. Never a dull moment and still only £3 for coffee and cake. May 5th, June 2nd and July 7th 10am to 12 noon

The Wine Club has finished its winter sessions, however there is a summer party planned for Thursday 21st July David Eaton 736754

Get excited for the return of the world famous Harvest Supper and Pantomime on Saturday, 22nd October!
